

Jeu du dîner #1 - Killdeer Farm Trip

Greetings	bonjour au revoir salut s'il vous plaît merci	hello goodbye hello please thank you
Classroom Rules	écouter répéter arrêter silence attention	listen repeat stop silence be careful
Killdeer Farm words  Basic	la ferme la terre le champ le tracteur planter manger	farm soil field tractor to plant to eat	la carotte la patate le chou la tomate la pomme la fleur	carrot potato cabbage tomato apple flower
Killdeer Farm words  Advanced	la serre la grange le fermier la fermière creuser pousser récolter	greenhouse barn farmer (masc.) farmer (fem.) to dig to grow to harvest	le maïs le blé d'inde la betterave le panais l'oignon la citrouille la courge	corn corn beet parsnip onion pumpkin gourd

Project: Passing game with toy vegetables: "Lance légumes"
Song: "Savez-vous planter des choux" (to hear song, see below)

---

Wondering how to pronounce French words? You can use the Usborne Books web site to hear the above song and recordings of French vocabulary. Here's how:

1. Go to the www.usborne-quicklinks.com web site.
2. Select USA as the country.
3. Enter French Songbook as keywords in the Find Book box.
4. Enter 15 as the page number.
5. Click the link entitled "Savez-vous planter les choux" to hear the song.

or for vocabulary words, follow these steps instead:

3. Enter French Picture Dictionary as the keyword in the Find Book box.
4. Select the range of words containing the English word for the French word you would like to hear. For example, for "Hello", scroll down and click on the link entitled "hat to honey (pages 36-37)". Then click on the link entitled "hello - bonjour". You should hear a nice lady say "bonjour".